

We seek to be a relevant Christian family grounded in Scripture, loving God and one another as Christ loves us.

This area should only contain our mission and vision statements, however, if all of your copy will not fit on the inside, you may put an overview of the information contained in the brochure this area.

Text for this copy should use the accent color over a watermark version of the same image that is on the cover; these images should be in the same position in the picture box.

Our purpose is to honor God by seeking, engaging, and encouraging people through a life-changing Christian journey.
